Freelance reporters and photographers applying for credentials must provide the Jazz with story-assignment information from their editor prior to receiving credentials. International requests must be approved by the NBA International Public Relations staff in New York. Credentials are non-transferrable and do not guarantee a seat. When in Energy*Solutions* Arena, credentials must be worn and visible to security staff at all times. Autographs are not allowed during media access times. The Jazz reserve the right to revoke credentials at any time for any reason.

GAIL MILLER

OWNER, CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Gail Miller, widow of the late Larry H. Miller, is owner of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies and chairman of the organization's advisory board. She is actively involved in the various operations of the company. She administers the Larry H. & Gail Miller Family Foundation, is Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees of Salt Lake Community College, provides scholarships to dependent children of hundreds of employees and funds numerous scholarships at the University of Utah for students in the federally recognized ethnic minorities. In 2009 she was named The Salt Lake Tribune's Most Influential Sports Figure in Utah.

A native of Salt Lake City, Gail was born sixth in a family of five boys and four girls. She attended Horace Mann Junior High School, where she first met and started dating her future husband, Larry H. Miller. They dated for six years and married on March 25, 1965.

Gail worked for Mountain States Telephone Company until 1970 when she and Larry moved their small family to Colorado to pursue fast pitch softball and a new business career in the automotive field.

In 1979 they returned to Salt Lake City to launch their own business with the purchase of Larry H. Miller Toyota in Murray, Utah. From its start as a single-dealership operation, the business has grown over the past 30 years into one of the largest privately-owned group of companies in the nation, with Gail playing a significant role in its success and development.

Gail is devoted to her family and enjoys spending time with her five children, their spouses, 23 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She is interested in many hobbies and especially enjoys genealogy and scrapbooking family histories. In addition to focusing on her family, she finds fulfillment in promoting healthy lifestyle choices and providing civic, church and community service.

GREG MILLER

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, LARRY H. MILLER GROUP OF COMPANIES

As chief executive officer of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies, Greg Miller oversees all automotive, sports and entertainment, and real estate divisions. These holdings include 41 automotive dealerships and one motorcycle dealership located throughout six Western states; credit, insurance and advertising agencies; two professional sports teams (Utah Jazz and Salt Lake Bees); a motorsports park and an arena; an independent television station; a catering company; a sports apparel retail chain; movie theaters; and an office complex.

Miller assumed his current position in July 2008 but has worked in the family business since 1979, when his father, Larry H. Miller, purchased his first auto dealership – a Toyota store located in Murray, Utah. Greg Miller, who was 13 at the time, began his career by sweeping floors and working in the parts department. Since then, the group has expanded into one of the nation's 200 largest privately-owned companies.

Miller has over 30 years experience working in a variety of positions that enabled him to learn the family business firsthand. During that time, he focused on areas ranging from finance to minor league hockey. His previous business endeavors include: starting up Performance Automotive, which provides chemicals, printing and specialty products to auto dealerships; managing several large construction projects; and serving as general manager of Toyota, Honda and Ford dealerships.

Miller has served on the boards of several philanthropic organizations.

During his teens, Miller developed an interest and appreciation of cars that continues today. He still owns his first automobile, a 1965 Mustang fastback.

Miller has three brothers and one sister, and is the oldest child of Larry H. and Gail Miller. He is married to Heidi Black Miller. They are the parents of six children (three sons and three daughters), and one granddaughter. Their family resides in Sandy, Utah.

RANDY RIGBY

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER, UTAH JAZZ/ LARRY H. MILLER SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Starting with the NBA franchise in 1986, Randy Rigby currently serves as president and chief operating officer of the Utah Jazz and LHM Sports & Entertainment Group. In that capacity, Rigby sets the strategic goals for the organization and analyzes future growth opportunities. On a day-to-day basis, he leads the senior management team responsible for overseeing the Utah Jazz, Salt Lake Bees, Energy*Solutions* Arena, Miller Motorsports Park, KJZZ-TV, 1320 KFAN, All-Star Catering, Fanzz retail sports apparel stores and the Megaplex Theatres. He also sits on the advisory board for the LHM Group of Companies and is a member of the NBA Team Advisory Committee.

Rigby's vision and direction has resulted in high definition broadcasts of Jazz games, increased exposure for multiple Utah-based sports organizations as well as local high school sports, securing the major name rights agreements for the Energy*Solutions* Arena as well as significant capital improvements to the arena and Spring Mobile Ballpark. Rigby leads his team by exhibiting his philosophy of being passionate, caring and having fun.

Rigby previously served as senior vice president of sales, broadcasting and chief marketing officer for Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment, in addition to General Manager of KJZZ-TV.

Rigby came to the Jazz from CFS Financial Corp. where he worked for three years as senior vice president. He is a 1979 graduate of Brigham Young University (BYU), where he earned a degree in business management with a special emphasis in finance and marketing. He serves on various boards in the Salt Lake area Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce, Utah Chapter of the American Lung Association and Rising Star Outreach. Rigby was also recently invited to join the President's Advisory Council of the United Way of Salt Lakes (UWSL) as a select community leader and is a member of the Hale Centre Theatre's Board of Trustees.

Randy and his wife, Sandra, have been married 31 years. They have four daughters, one son and six grandchildren. The couple resides in Farmington, Utah. In his spare time, he enjoys scuba diving, golf and taking his family fly-fishing.

KEVIN O'CONNOR

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS, GENERAL MANAGER

The 2010-11 season marks Kevin O'Connor's 12th overseeing all aspects of the Jazz's basketball operations, making him the second-longest tenured general manager in the NBA behind only Geoff Petrie of the Sacramento Kings (16 seasons). Among some of the key moves orchestrated by O'Connor during his tenure with the Jazz are acquiring the draft picks (through trades) that led to the selection of Deron Williams and Gordon Hayward. Other acquisitions include, trading for Al Jefferson, the free-agent signings of Carlos Boozer, Matt Harpring and Mehmet Okur, and draft finds like C.J. Miles (34th overall in 2005), Paul Millsap (47th overall in 2006), Mo Williams (47th overall in 2003) and Wesley Matthews (undrafted in 2009).

Since O'Connor's arrival in Salt Lake City in 1999, the Jazz has compiled a record of 514-388 (.570), finishing with a .500-or-better record in 10 of 11 seasons and advancing to the playoffs eight times while winning three division titles. Along the way, O'Connor was able to successfully transition the team from the final years of the John Stockton/Karl Malone era into a perennial playoff team and 2007 Western Conference finalist despite having only one top-10 draft selection (Williams in 2005) since 1983 (prior to the 2010 Hayward pick).

Prior to joining the Jazz, O'Connor spent two seasons as the director of player personnel for the Philadelphia 76ers, charged with player evaluations and supervising the team's scouting department. He has also served as a scout for the Jazz, the New Jersey Nets, the Portland Trail Blazers and the Los Angeles Clippers.

In addition to his NBA experience, O'Connor served as an assistant coach to Larry Brown at UCLA in 1980 when the Bruins advanced to the NCAA championship game. He was also an assistant at Virginia Military Institute when it made an improbable run to the Elite Eight of the 1976 NCAA Tournament, and he helped coach Virginia Tech to a 22-5 record and the 1973 NIT Championship. His collegiate career included assistant coaching jobs at Virginia Tech (1972-74), VMI (1974-76), the University of Colorado (1976-79) and UCLA (1979-85).

Born in the Bronx, O'Connor grew up on Staten Island, N.Y. He earned a degree in economics and business in 1969 from Belmont Abbey College in Belmont, N.C., where he helped lead the basketball team to a 21-5 record his senior year. He then served a two-year stint in the U.S. Army from 1969-71.

O'Connor and his wife, Linda, reside in Salt Lake City. They have three children: Katie, Adam and Lindsay. Their fourth child, Brian, is deceased.

ROBERT HYDE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER, PRESIDENT OF FANZZ

Bob Hyde is currently in his 26th year with the Utah Jazz, where he is responsible for all accounting, tax and financial operations of the franchise. In addition, Hyde is responsible for maintaining the financial elements of the salary cap and other aspects of the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the NBA and its Players Association, as well as player contract administration and assisting in the financial aspects of player trade analysis. He has developed a unique ranking system, which rates all NBA players each year and is used in player personnel evaluations.

As chief financial officer for the Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment Group of Companies, Hyde is responsible for financial management as well as human resources, insurance management, and legal affairs. He is also responsible for oversight of the facilities maintenance and food services operations at Energy*Solutions* Arena.

He serves as a member of the Advisory Board for the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies, as well as on several employee benefits and corporate investment committees. Hard-working, driven, successful and well-respected, Head Coach Jerry Sloan is currently in his 23rd season at the helm of the Jazz with the same intensity and work ethic that has characterized his life as a player and a coach for more than 45 years in the NBA. The 68-year-old native of McLeansboro, Ill., lets his coaching achievements speak for themselves, with the fourth most wins all-time (1,190-780), seventh best winning percentage (.604) in NBA history (500-win minimum), two NBA Finals appearances (1997 and 1998) and seven division titles. He has also guided the Jazz to 17 consecutive winning seasons and thirteen 50-win seasons. Sloan's teams have made 20 trips to the NBA Playoffs (19 w/ Utah: 1989-2003, '07-10) and his 98 playoff wins are the sixth most in NBA history. He is the longest tenured coach in NBA history and celebrated his 20th anniversary as Jazz head coach on December 9, 2008. On September 11, 2009, Sloan was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

After leading the Jazz to a 42-40 record in 2003-04, Sloan was selected by The Sporting News as the NBA Coach of the Year as voted on by his NBA peers, and was runner-up to Memphis' Hubie Brown for the Red Auerbach NBA Coach of the Year as voted by a panel of national media that covers the NBA. He also finished second to Toronto's Sam Mitchell in Coach of the Year balloting in 2006-07 after improving the Jazz by 10 games, winning the Northwest Division title while returning them to the playoffs for the first time since 2003. He has been named NBA Western Conference Coach of the Month 10 times during his career, most recently in February 2009, when the Jazz went 10-1 to shoot up the playoff standings.

Sloan became the first coach to ever win 1,000 games with one team with a victory over the Oklahoma City Thunder on November 7, 2008. Sloan stands alone in games won with one team – the next closest coach is Red Auerbach with 795 wins; the next closest active head coach is Gregg Popovich of the San Antonio Spurs, who has 736 wins.

He became the fifth coach in NBA history to record 1,000 wins with a victory over Dallas on December 11, 2006. He then passed Larry Brown for fourth on the NBA's all-time win list (1,010) on January 20, 2007 at Chicago.

Sloan ranks first on the all-time list for consecutive games coached with one franchise (1,755), and also owns the record for most wins with one team (1,096). Earning his 13th 50-win season with a 53-29 record in 2009-10, Sloan is one of just three coaches in league history to win at least 50 games in 10 different seasons (Pat Riley and Phil Jackson – 16 each). Sloan's 16 straight winning seasons (1988-2004) are second-most all-time (Pat Riley had 19 from 1981-2001) and Sloan and Red Auerbach (11) are the only two coaches in NBA history to have 10 straight winning seasons with one team.

Sloan worked for the Jazz as a scout (1983-84), became an assistant coach to Frank Layden on November 19, 1984, and was named the sixth head coach in franchise history on December 9, 1988, when Layden resigned. Twenty-two seasons and 1,755 games later, Sloan is the franchise's winningest coach with a .625 winning percentage (1,096-659). The longest tenured coach with one franchise in all of major professional sports, since Sloan's hiring there have been 242 other NBA head coaching changes (entering 2010-11). In fact, five current NBA teams (Bobcats, Grizzlies, Raptors, Magic, Timberwolves) did not exist when he took the helm in Utah, which occurred just over a month into the in 1988-89 inaugural season for both the Heat and Hornets franchises.

He served as an assistant coach in Chicago for two seasons (1977-79) and worked as a Bulls scout in 1976-77. He served briefly as head coach of the Evansville Thunder in the CBA in 1984 but resigned to take the job as Layden's assistant before ever coaching a game.

PHIL JOHNSON
ASSISTANT COACH

Phil Johnson is currently in his 23rd season as Jerry Sloan's top assistant coach. Over the years, the former NBA Coach of the Year has become widely acknowledged as one of the premier basketball coaches in the sport, confirmed when NBA general managers named him the league's top assistant prior to the 2005-06, 2007-08 and 2010-11 seasons.

Johnson's working relationship with Sloan dates back more than three decades to when he coached Sloan as an assistant under Dick Motta for the Chicago Bulls from 1971-74.

After working under Motta, his former junior high, high school and college coach, Johnson earned his first NBA head coaching duties at the age of 32 with the Kansas City-Omaha Kings midway through the 1973-74 season.

Though the Kings were just 6-19 when Johnson took over, he earned a record of 27-30, and the team finished the season at 33-49. But Johnson had instilled changes in his players – enough to earn Coach of the Year honors the next season when he guided them to an 11-game improvement at 44-38 and their first playoff berth in eight seasons. Johnson garnered 21 of 54 votes from the media, defeating Al Attles (10) and K.C. Jones (5) for the award.

After being replaced by the Kings in mid season during the 1977-78 campaign, Johnson reunited with Sloan in Chicago, becoming his assistant coach prior to the 1979-80 season. The two worked together through the end of Sloan's tenure with the Bulls midway through the 1981-82 season. Johnson then joined the Jazz when Frank Layden named him assistant coach on July 20, 1982. In 1983-84, the Jazz would make the playoffs for the first time, taking home the Midwest Division title. Also during that season, Frank Layden, Johnson and Scott Layden coached the West squad in the 1984 NBA All-Star Game.

The Kings welcomed Johnson back on November 18, 1984, and he coached nearly three seasons at Sacramento before joining the Jazz in his current position on December 11, 1988. During his time with the Jazz, he has helped guide the team to seven division titles, 18 playoff appearances, and two Western Conference championships.

The 69-year-old Johnson began his coaching career as a graduate assistant to Ladell Andersen while earning his master's degree at Utah State University, before moving on to become an assistant to Motta at Weber State (Ogden, Utah) in 1964. When Motta left to become head coach of the Chicago Bulls in 1968, the 27-year-old Johnson assumed the reins and guided the Wildcats to a 68-16 record, three Big Sky Championships and three consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament – while earning three consecutive Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year awards in the process. He was named District VII Coach of the Year in 1967-68 as well. To this day he sits atop the Big Sky records book as the all-time winningest coach in conference history, with a 39-5 record.

A native of Grace, Idaho, Johnson lettered in both track and basketball at Utah State while earning his bachelor's degree in physical education. He played on the Aggies teams that advanced to the 1962 and 1963 NCAA Tournaments, captaining the 1963 squad as a senior and averaging 12.3 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. Weber State inducted him into its Hall of Fame in 1992, and Utah State honored him as its Alumnus of the Year in 1997.

Johnson and his wife, Ann, are the parents of two children (Mitchel and Nathan) and have two grandchildren. They reside in suburban Salt Lake City.

2003-04 NOTES:

- For the first time in 18 years, the Jazz begins the season without Karl Malone and John Stockton.
- 31 games in, leading scorer Matt Harpring is forced to undergo right knee surgery and misses the remainder of the season.
- On 2/19/04, the Jazz trades DeShawn Stevenson to Orlando for Gordan Giricek, and also send Keon Clark and Ben Handlogten to Phoenix for Tom Gugliotta.
- Utah finishes with its 19th straight winning season and 21st straight at .500 or better.
- However, for the first time since the 1983-84 season, the team fails to make the playoffs, snapping a 20-year run (third best in NBA history).
- Thus, the Jazz enters the NBA Lottery for the first time in team history.
- Andrei Kirilenko finishes the season as the team's leader in scoring, rebounding, blocks, steals and minutes played – he finishes third in the league in blocks (2.77) and fourth in steals (1.94).
- Jerry Sloan wins his 900th career game on 2/7/04, and finishes second to Hubie Brown (Memphis) for NBA Coach of the Year.

2008-09 NOTES:

- Head coach Jerry Sloan and former Jazz great John Stockton were elected to the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame on 4/6/09.
- Sloan became the only coach in NBA history to win at least 1,000 games with one team with the Jazz's 104-97 win over Oklahoma City on 11/7.
- Sloan, the longest tenured coach in NBA history and the longest current head coach in major professional sports, celebrated his 20th anniversary as Jazz head coach with a 99-96 win at Minnesota on 12/9.
- Legendary Jazz broadcaster "Hot" Rod Hundley called his 3,000th Jazz game when the team, ironically enough, defeated the New Orleans Hornets on 1/7.
- Hundley, who called games for the first 35 seasons in Jazz history, dating back to the franchise's inception in New Orleans in 1974, retired following the Jazz's elimination from the 2009 playoffs.
- The Jazz advances to the playoffs for the third straight season and the 18th time in Jerry Sloan's 21 years as Jazz head coach.
- The Jazz finishes with a .500 or better record for the 25th time in the last 26 years and with a winning record for the 22nd time in the last 24 years.
- Utah lost 156 man-games overall and 148 due to injury/illness, many to key players (45 games for Carlos Boozer, 15 for Andrei Kirilenko, 14 apiece for Deron Williams and Matt Harpring) that forced the Jazz to use 20 different starting lineups.
- The Jazz did not have its projected starting lineup of Miles, Boozer, Okur, Brewer, Williams until Game 57 (2/23/09 vs. Atlanta).
- The Jazz wins 12 games in a row from 2/11 - 3/10, marking the fourth-longest winning streak in franchise history.
- The team finished the season leading the league in assists (24.7) and steals (8.77), ranking third in field goal percentage (.475) and seventh in scoring (103.6).
- Deron Williams averaged career highs of 19.4 points and 10.7 assists per game (ranking second in the NBA behind Chris Paul).
- Williams had five games in a row with 30+ points and shooting at least 50 percent shooting (1/31-2/11), the first time the feat was reached by an NBA point guard since Pete Maravich did it with the New Orleans Jazz in 1976. The last player overall to do so was LeBron James in 2007; the last guard was Michael Jordan in 1996 and the last Jazzman to do it was Karl Malone in 1995.
- Paul Millsap, filling in for injured Carlos Boozer, posted a 19-game double-double streak, which was the longest of the NBA season and most since Kevin Garnett had 33 in a row in 2006. The streak was the most by a Jazzman since John Stockton had 25 in 1991.

On March 7, 1974, New Orleans became the 18th member of the NBA as a nine-man group headed by Fred Rosenfeld and Sam Battistone paid $6.15 million for the expansion franchise. Then on May 3, 1974, Pete Maravich was acquired by trade from Atlanta, becoming the first player in franchise history.

That spring, a contest was held to name the expansion team. Of the more than 6,500 names submitted, eight semi-finalists emerged: Jazz, Dukes, Crescents, Pilots, Cajuns, Blues, Deltas, and Knights.

After much deliberation, team officials announced that the new team name would be the New Orleans Jazz on June 7, 1974.

Three contestants had entered the Jazz name with the same postmark date, so team officials had Miss New Orleans 1974, Kay Johnson, choose a winner out of a hopper. That winner was Steve Brown, a 27-year old broker and transplant New Yorker.

Brown, a self-proclaimed Jazz freak who had once played in a league with Julius Irving, said, "I grew up on Knickerbocker basketball, but this is my team now." He received two Jazz season tickets and a trip to the 1975 NBA All-Star Game in Phoenix.

As the undisputed "Jazz capital of the world", the city embraced the new name. And, for the second time, Jazz had been born in New Orleans. To convey a distinct Mardi Gras theme, purple gold, and green colors were used and the logo featured the 'J' as an eighth note. The team colors were actually selected prior to the name.

"Jazz is one of those things for which New Orleans is nationally famous and locally proud," owner Fred Rosenfeld said. "It is a great art form which belongs to New Orleans and its rich history."

"As for the tradition of Mardi Gras, the three colors are emblematic of the following: purple for justice, green for faith, gold for power."

The Jazz remained in New Orleans for five years (1974-79) before ownership decided to move the team to Salt Lake City following the 1978-79 season. Despite no history of Jazz music in Utah, the name was kept.

Although many at the time had reservations about Utah's ability to successfully support an NBA team, Utah Jazz fans became some of the most loyal fans in the league. To this day, saxophones, Cajun food, and Mardi Gras beads may be hard to come by in Salt Lake City, but Jazz is definitely in the air.

QUICK JAZZ FACTS:

- The Jazz name was selected because of its definition in the dictionary: "collective improvisation."
- The source of the word "Jazz" is not clear, but the word is often regarded as being of African or Creole origin.

LARRY H. MILLER

NO. 9 BANNER RAISED AND COURT DEDICATED IN HIS HONOR ON APRIL 14, 2010

A man who truly loved Utah, Larry H. Miller was a well-known entrepreneur, community advocate and humanitarian, who owned the Utah Jazz for 24 years prior to his death in February 2009 ... Miller purchased 50-percent interest in the Jazz on April 11, 1985 from then-owner Sam Battistone, then bought the remaining half on June 16, 1986 ... Under his ownership, the franchise grew considerably and became a winner both on and off the court ... Miller's success as owner of the Jazz was just one chapter in his amazing saga of business achievement and community involvement ... His unwavering personal commitment to professional sports in Salt Lake City created the foundation for a strong franchise in one of the league's smallest markets and was rewarded with achievements such as consecutive trips to the NBA Finals in 1997 and 1998 and hosting the NBA All-Star game in 1993 ... The founding owner of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies, whose primary business is a network of automobile dealerships spanning the Rocky Mountain West ... His career in the automotive industry grew from roots in the parts business in both Salt Lake City and Denver before he purchased his first dealership in 1979 ... The Larry H. Miller Group of Companies began with the Larry H. Miller Toyota store in Murray, Utah on May 1, 1979 ... Through the years, Miller amassed more than 80 businesses and properties in the western United States, most notably the Jazz, Energy*Solutions* Arena, the Salt Lake Bees (AAA-affiliate of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim), Miller Motorsports Park, Megaplex Theatres, and dozens of automobile dealerships spanning the Rocky Mountain West ... Miller also developed vast real estate holdings including commercial and agricultural properties ... In March 2003, Miller opened the Zions Bank Basketball Center, the Jazz's premier basketball training and practice facility which features two full-size NBA courts, totaling 22,200 square feet of court ... His most visible contribution to Salt Lake City was his privately owned EnergySolutions Arena, which under his supervision, was completed in 1991 in a then-record 15 months and 24 days, and has served as home for the Jazz for the past 19 seasons ... He received awards from Sports Illustrated, and the American Import Auto Dealers Association for his work in the automobile industry ... In 1992, he was honored by the International Softball Congress when he was inducted into the ISC Hall of Fame as one of the top pitchers in the country ... He was also awarded honorary doctorate degrees from the University of Utah, Weber State University, Salt Lake Community College and Utah Valley State College ... He was named Utah's 1997 Master Entrepreneur of the Year and received numerous other honors from business, civic and non-profit organizations ... He coined the phrase "Go about doing good until there is too much good in the world" ... Miller and his wife Gail provide close to 300 college scholarships each year ... Larry H. Miller Charities, a foundation funded by monthly contributions from his businesses, fundraising events in the community, and personal donations from employees, has donated millions of dollars to communities in which the Larry H. Miller Group does business ... Larry and Gail also donated millions of dollars to Utah-based colleges and universities for campus improvements such as the state-of-the-art softball and baseball complexes at BYU ... The Larry H. Miller Campus of the Salt Lake Community College (SLCC), was completed in fall 2001 and includes the Larry H. Miller Entrepreneurship Training Center and The Larry and Gail Miller Public Safety Education & Training Center ... Born in Salt Lake City in 1944, Miller grew up modestly in the Capitol Hill area before becoming one of Utah's most successful entrepreneurs and business leaders ... He died from complications due to type 2 diabetes at the age of 64 on February 20, 2009 ... He left behind a profound professional and personal legacy, created a significant and lasting impact on the communities in which he did business, and the more than 7,000 individuals he employed ... Despite all of his success, Miller always maintained that his greatest accomplishment is the family that survives him: his wife, Karen Gail Saxton Miller, their four sons and one daughter, grandchildren, and great grandchildren ... On April 14, 2010, Miller was honored by the Larry H. Miller Corporation as its employees participated in a day of service, his softball No. 9 was raised to the rafters of Energy*Solutions* Arena, and the basketball court was dedicated as Larry H. Miller Court at Energy*Solutions* Arena.

NBA Cares is the league's global social responsibility program that builds on the NBA's long tradition of addressing important social issues. The NBA and its teams and players support a wide range of initiatives, partners, and programs that strive to positively impact children and families around the world.

As part of the league's mission to demonstrate leadership in social responsibility, NBA Cares reaches communities using philanthropy, hands-on service, and creating legacy projects. Since the program's October 2005 launch, the league, its players, and its teams have donated more than $140 million to charity, provided more than 1.1 million hours of hands-on service, and created more than 500 places where kids and families can live, learn, or play.

NBA Cares reaches millions of children and adults through specialized programs – including NBA FIT and Basketball without Borders – that support education, youth and family development, and health and wellness. The league and its teams and players also promote environmental awareness and sustainability through NBA Green. During annual high-profile league events, including NBA All-Star, The Finals, and international preseason games, NBA Cares initiates community outreach efforts to tap into the power of sport for positive social change.

Thanks to strong partnerships with internationally recognized community organizations – including KaBOOM!, Special Olympics, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, UNICEF, the Make-A-Wish Foundation, the Global Business Coalition on HIV/AIDS, Malaria and Tuberculosis, and the UN Foundation – NBA Cares makes a positive and lasting impact in communities around the world.

THANKSGIVING DINNER

Every November a traditional Thanksgiving dinner is served at Energy*Solutions* Arena for homeless and low-income individuals and families. The Utah Jazz, EnergySolutions Arena, Salt Lake Mission, Utah Food Services and the Deron Williams Point of Hope Foundation partner to provide this holiday meal. Last season, more than 3,500 dinners were served.

CHRISTMAS HOSPITAL VISITS

Jazz players, coaches, dancers and the Bear visit Shriners Hospital for Children – Salt Lake City and Primary Children's Medical Center each December to comfort children who are unable to be home during the holidays. A Jazz entourage moves from room to room, visiting with each child and leaving a small gift. These Christmas visits have been a Jazz tradition for over 20 years.

BE A TEAM PLAYER – READ!

Be a Team Player – Read! is a highly successful program aimed at increasing literacy skills in children. Over a four-week period of time, local elementary schools log students' out-of-school reading time. The top 10 schools are rewarded with a Jazz player visit. Last year, more than 26,000 students read over 20 million minutes.

POINT OF HOPE FOUNDATION

The Deron Williams Point of Hope Foundation assists a variety of organizations and benefits causes as diverse as cancer, autism and diabetes. Williams' outreach efforts have included donating school supplies, visiting with autistic children and helping low-income individuals pay utilities. The Point of Hope Foundation has also aided underserved single mothers and children at Christmas. Last season, Williams focused on assisting military veterans during the holidays. Veterans and their families attended a private dinner hosted by Williams and his wife at a local restaurant, where they were presented with clothing and gifts.

LEAPIN' LEANERS & LOW TOPS

Leapin' Leaners & Low Tops is a fundraiser designed to give fans interaction with players while raising money for Larry H. Miller Charities, a nonprofit foundation that focuses on children's issues in the areas of health and education. Fans are encouraged to wear formal attire and gym shoes to EnergySolutions Arena, where they have dinner, play basketball on the Jazz court, get autographs and photos with their favorite players, and participate in a silent and live auction.

COURTS IN PARKS

The Utah Jazz and Larry H. Miller Charities continue to collaborate with local cities on the construction of public outdoor basketball courts in Utah. To date, eight courts have been built along the Wasatch Front, and this season some of those courts will be refurbished. Last season, a court was constructed at a facility that provides low-income housing to homeless individuals and families.

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. DAY SCHOLARSHIP

Each January, the Utah Jazz and Larry H. Miller Charities award a scholarship to an outstanding student who is recognized for his or her accomplishments. The scholarship is presented at an NAACP luncheon held in honor of Martin Luther King Jr.

READING AND LEARNING CENTERS

The Utah Jazz has spearheaded the creation of learning and reading centers at three local agencies that serve underprivileged youth in the Salt Lake area. By remodeling and refitting rooms with items such as books, computers and educational tools, these rooms now offer children enhanced learning opportunities.

HIT THE STREETS

Jazz players go into the community each preseason to "hit the streets" and interact face-to-face with fans. Activities vary every year and have included riding public transportation, attending high school football games, visiting local police and fire stations, posing for photographs, signing autographs and distributing free game tickets.

GREAT PUBLIC SCHOOLS CELEBRATION

The Utah Jazz and Utah Education Association recognize the achievements of local schools and educators with the Great Public School Celebration Award. Nominations are submitted by peers from the education community, and winners are honored during halftime at a Jazz game.

AL JEFFERSON OUTREACH

In September, Al Jefferson donated backpacks full of school supplies to underserved children and then visited with the youth. Additional community outreach efforts will be initiated by Jefferson throughout the season.

NEWSPAPERS IN EDUCATION

The Utah Jazz collaborates with the Deseret News to produce an annual educational news section that addresses topics relevant to youth. Teachers can request complimentary copies of the supplement for use in the classroom. Last season, over 400,000 copies were distributed to teachers and newspaper subscribers.

ASSIST AWARD

Entering its fifth season, Friends of the Utah Jazz is a donation program that benefits local charitable organizations. Each time an assist is logged by players during Jazz games, funding is generated for various nonprofit agencies in the community.

WHEELIN' JAZZ

The Utah Jazz continues its support of the Wheelin' Jazz, a Utah-based team that belongs to the National Wheelchair Basketball Association. The wheelchair team has participated in halftime demonstrations highlighting the sport, and team jerseys have been donated by the Utah Jazz.

TOYS FOR TOTS

The Utah Jazz has a long-standing tradition of helping the U.S. Marines collect toys for underserved children during the holidays. Jazz fans participate in a Toys for Tots drive at two home games each December. The toy drive is presented by American Family Insurance.

TICKET DONATIONS

In recent years, several Jazz players have purchased groups of Jazz tickets for donation back to the community. Many of the tickets allowed local youth, especially those from low-income families, to attend Jazz games free of charge. Since 2006, almost 20,000 tickets have been contributed. This season, the University of Phoenix will donate 50 tickets per game.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

For many years, the team has supported Boy Scouts of America by honoring scouts who generate the largest volume of ticket sales to Scout O' Rama, an annual fundraising event. Top sellers from neighboring districts receive tickets to a Jazz game, where they are recognized during halftime.

GOING GREEN

In collaboration with the National Basketball Association, Questar Gas and Rocky Mountain Power, the Jazz focuses on responsible use of energy resources. A home game last season was devoted to educating consumers and raising environmental awareness within the community. Energy-saving measures have been implemented at EnergySolutions Arena and "going green" continues to be a team priority.

CHARITABLE AUCTIONS

Silent auctions are held at designated home games throughout the season to generate funds for charity. Fans bid on unique autographed memorabilia, with proceeds benefiting Larry H. Miller Charities – a nonprofit foundation that focuses on helping youth and children in the areas of health and education.

BEAR HUGS FOR KIDS

Bear Hugs for Kids, an outreach effort that was initiated by the Jazz Bear, has benefited many children over the years. The program includes an annual outing where volunteers take underserved youth Christmas shopping.

JR. JAZZ YOUTH BASKETBALL

Jr. Jazz began in 1983 and is the longest-running youth basketball league in the NBA. Between 50,000 to 60,000 youth from Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Nevada, Arizona and Montana participate in the program annually. Jr. Jazz emphasizes sportsmanship, teamwork and fundamental basketball skills. Each Jazz player participates in one to two Jr. Jazz clinics per year, where they speak to youth and conduct basketball clinics.

COACHES FOR KIDS

Jazz coaches and trainers provide hundreds of local children the opportunity to attend Jazz basketball games through the NBA's Coaches for Kids program. Through the initiative, NBA coaches, assistant coaches, general managers and athletic trainers contribute to Boys & Girls Clubs of America, enabling thousands of youth across the nation to attend NBA games.

NBA CARES

Each fall, the Jazz sponsors a community service activity as part of the league's social responsibility initiative, NBA Cares. Past events have allowed underserved children to interact with Jazz players at educational sites such as a planetarium, museum or zoo. Private basketball clinics have also been conducted that benefit groups such as Special Olympics or military families. Last season, the team sponsored a community food drive where players joined members of Best Buddies and volunteered at a local food bank.

COMMUNITY BASKETBALL CLINICS

Jazz coaching staff members reach out to the community by offering free basketball clinics to children of local educators, police officers, firefighters and nurses. Clinics are held at the team's practice facility where participants hone basketball skills, watch team film, tour the site and receive a gift from the Jazz.

DAY OF SERVICE

The Utah Jazz paid tribute to its late owner, Larry H. Miller, by designating a day to honor his many contributions to the community. Jazz staff joined other Miller-company employees to participate in a service project benefiting the homeless. A private lunch with community members who had worked closely with Miller was also held. Fans attending the game that evening received commemorative memorabilia and witnessed a jersey retirement ceremony held in Miller's honor.

Larry H. Miller Charities

The Larry H. Miller Group of Companies consists primarily of sports, retail, entertainment and automotive businesses based in Arizona, Idaho, Colorado, New Mexico, Texas, California, Washington and Oregon, with the majority located in Utah. Larry H. Miller Charities (LHM Charities) is a nonprofit foundation formed in 1995 that functions as the charitable arm of these many companies. Assistance from the foundation is directed toward groups and programs based in the same communities where Miller businesses are located.

LHM Charities focuses its donations on issues that affect children, with an emphasis on health and education. A board of 12 trustees regularly meets to review requests and proposals that are submitted. Donations are distributed to qualified 501(c)(3) nonprofit status organizations.

Funding for LHM Charities is generated through monthly contributions from Larry H. Miller companies and personal donations from employees. Funds are also raised through contributions from the general public. Each year, Utah Jazz players actively assist at a major fundraising event.

Since its inception in 1995, Larry H. Miller Charities has assisted a multitude of organizations and worthy causes. This past year, donations were made to groups such as: Ronald McDonald House, Fourth Street Clinic, Utah Youth Mentor Project, ShelterKids, Neighborhood House, Community Health Centers, Ability Found, Camp Hobe, The Happy Factory, South Valley Sanctuary and many schools.

LHM Charities has collaborated with the Utah Jazz and NBA on numerous community projects.

UTAH JAZZ BEAR

Now entering his 17th season, Bear, the loveable and playful mascot of the Utah Jazz, has entertained millions of fans at more than 750 Jazz home games since his introduction on November 4, 1994.

Although he is known for his on-court antics at Jazz games like sledding down the stairs at the Energy*Solutions* Arena, rappelling from the arena rafters, teasing referees, high-fiving fans, shooting silly string and giving hugs to children, it's his many hours of service to the community that makes Bear the incredible mascot he is. His attitude and energy bring laughter to everyone.

In addition to Jazz games he has enriched Utah by donating time to schools, community centers and hospitals. Each year, Bear entertains and instructs grade-school students through assemblies such as "Fun to be Fit" and "Read to Achieve," which strive to teach students how to make informed and intelligent life choices. For the past 16 years Bear has appeared at numerous events for organizations like Big Brothers Big Sisters, Primary Children's Hospital, Special Olympics, D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education), Toys for Tots and Race for the Cure. Bear also hosts the "Bear Hugs for Kids" program each year, taking 100-150 underprivileged youth on a shopping spree to purchase Christmas presents for themselves and their families.

He has received dozens of service awards for his charitable work and contributions. For his 10th birthday on June 9, 2004, Utah State Governor Olene Walker declared the day as "Jazz Bear Day" in recognition of his countless hours of community and public service and his standing as an important citizen of Utah. Bear has also received the NBA Mascot Leadership Award each of the last two years, and was selected by his peers as the NBA Mascot of the Year in 2006 and 2008.

Bear was again honored when Utah Governor Jon Huntsman Jr. declared August, 10, 2006, "Jazz Bear Day" and announced Bear's selection to the national Mascot Hall of Fame. Bear's induction into the second class of the Mascot Hall of Fame was on August 15, 2006 in Philadelphia. The highest honor bestowed upon mascots, the mission of the Hall of Fame is to recognize great mascot performers, performance and programs that have inspired tradition and positively affected communities.

The Nu Skin Jazz Dancers add an exciting entertainment element to Utah Jazz basketball. The team performs a minimum of two times per game and holds three-hour practices two times per week. Their energetic dance style includes a variety of jazz, lyrical, funk and character-type dance routines.

Each summer, the dancers host junior dance clinics available to local studios and drill teams. Beginning in 2003, the dancers entered the dance competition business and started Xtreme Danzz Competition, which is quickly becoming the largest dance competition in Utah.
